

Russian Language
Accusative [Singular] - Quiz 1

Fill in the gaps by properly declining the nouns given.

1. Брат любит _____ , а сестра любит _____. [сестра, брат]
2. Муж брил _____ , пока жена красилась. [борода]
3. В свободное время мы смотрим _____ и слушаем _____. [телевизор, радио]
4. Летом на рынке они покупают _____ , _____ и _____. [клубника, малина, ежевика]
5. Вы пьёте _____ или _____ ? [вино, пиво]
6. По двору бегали дети. Они играли в _____. [футбол]
7. Он целует её в _____ , а потом ходит на работу. [щека]
8. Раз в _____ я звоню родителям. [неделя]
9. Следующим летом ты поедешь в _____. [Польша]
10. Надо регулярно пить _____ , чтобы избежать обезвождения. [вода]

My Slavic Studies
A blog about me and my Slavic language studies.
<https://myslavicstudies.com>

Answers:

сестру, брата

[tr. The brother loves the sister, and the sister loves the brother.]

бороду

[tr. The husband shaved his beard, while the wife put on make-up.]

телевизор, радио

(While there is no visible change, it's nevertheless important to be aware of the case.)

[tr. In our free time, we watch television and listen to the radio.]

клубнику, малину, ежевику

In Russian, клубника, малина, ежевика are used collectively. This means they are not used in the plural, thus, for example, малина can mean both raspberry [singular] and raspberries [plural].

[tr. In summer at the market, they buy strawberries, raspberries and blackberries.]

вино, пиво

[tr. Do you drink wine or beer?]

футбол

[tr. Children were running around the yard. They were playing soccer.]

щёку

[tr. He kisses her on the cheek, then leaves for work.]

неделю

[Once a week, I call my parents.]

Польшу

[tr. Next summer, you'll go to Poland.]

воду

[tr. One must regularly drink water to avoid dehydration.]